The CPC Career Center

Matches Your Skills With The

RIGHT Employers

To help job seekers find work, the CPC Workforce Development Division has created a Career Center. The CPC Career Center provides employment placement services, which includes personalized assessment, career counseling, career development workshops, and job referrals. Job seekers also could use our self-help public access areas, such as our phones, fax machines, photocopiers and personal computers to conduct job search.

* All of these services are FREE of charge ****
